AUTHORITY:

Policy CD-034500

PROCEDURES:

- A. The Secretary, who is the only individual who can authorize a furlough, shall initiate the furlough process by sending a letter to the State Personnel Office. The letter shall:
 1. State the reason(s) the furlough is necessary.
 2. Identify the organizational unit(s) that will be affected.
 3. Identify the classification and number of individuals within each affected organizational unit who will be furloughed.
 4. Provide other information, as deemed necessary.
- B. The Secretary, after having received approval from the State Personnel Office, shall send a letter to the Bureau Chief, Division Director or Deputy Secretary of the organizational unit directing a furlough. Additionally, all personnel actions within the unit affected by the furlough will be frozen immediately.
- C. The State Personnel Office shall send an individual letter to each affected employee at least 14 calendar days before the effective date of the furlough. The letter shall:
 1. Provide the individual with the reason(s) for the furlough.
 2. Provide the individual with the length of the furlough and the amount of reduction in normal working hours.
 3. State that employees who fail to return to work from furlough when directed by the agency shall be considered absent without leave and may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal. Individuals will be given at least 14 calendar days notice before the date they are required to return to work.

- D. The State Personnel Office shall submit a report detailing the furlough results to the Secretary within ten calendar days of furlough completion.
- E. In making determinations concerning length of furlough or sequence of furlough, the following order will be used:
 - 1. Temporary and emergency employees.
 - 2. Probationers with less than one year of service. Individuals will be furloughed in reverse order of Service date.
 - 3. Career status employees with more than one year of service in reverse order of Service Date
- F. Furloughs involving employees covered by the Collective Bargaining Agreement shall be handled in accordance with Article 31, Sections 1 and 2.
