PROCEDURES: [4-APPFS-3E-11]

- A. The Academy may provide meals and lodging for students attending Academy-sponsored training sessions if those students qualify under 2.42.2 7 L NMAC. Students housed at the Academy dormitory facility shall be provided meals at the Academy cafeteria. In the event a student chooses not to lodge at Academy provided facilities when the Academy is not at full capacity, or chooses not to eat the meals provided, that student will be responsible for his/her meal and lodging costs.
- B. As stipulated in DFA Rule 2.24.2 NMAC, incidental expenses are the financial responsibility of the student.
- C. The institutions will use state credit cards for actual gasoline purchases for the transportation of students to and from training sessions in a state-owned vehicle. This travel should be approved prior to the beginning of the session. Also, the institution will reimburse private vehicle mileage usage to students in accordance with DFA Rule 2.24.2 NMAC provided that the Warden/Division Director has approved the usage.
- D. The Academy, in the event of full dorm capacity and if a statewide or departmental price agreement is not available, shall solicit bids or price quotes prior to entering into any contracts with vendors. Incidental expenses will be the responsibility of the student and will not be included in the awarded contract terms and conditions. The proposed expenditures to the Academy will be the most cost effective possible and when possible, should reflect a minimum cost savings of 15% compared with actual authorized per diem rates for the particular session. The Academy must provide the required purchase and other supporting documentation prior to any vendor awards being made. Academy administration will be responsible for disseminating information regarding lodging arrangements and training dates to the institution/division training officer, who in turn will be responsible for disseminating the documented information to the students.
- E. At the discretion of the respective (appropriate) Division Director/Warden, both per diem and mileage may be reimbursed to the student in accordance with DFA Rule 2.24.2 NMAC for travel to and from attendance at educational training not sponsored, but approved, by the Academy. Institutions/Divisions should be granted such approval by their respective Wardens/Division Directors. Written application must provide information pertinent to location, dates, sponsor, detailed and total costs, and benefits to NMCD, etc. The Academy Director will approve or disapprove it in writing and in a timely manner. Approval of the course is at the discretion of the Academy Director.

- F. It is the responsibility of the primary instructor/ class coordinator of each Academy-sponsored training session to confer periodically with hotel managers, etc., to ensure that contract awarded terms are met and that services are provided as per contract rates. Students will be notified before each session of the maximum room and meal allowance that will be provided by the Academy. Students will pay the hotel management all incidental expenses before checking out. Failure to do so could result in reprimand or disciplinary action.
- G. Upon the completion of each training session, itemized expenditures for meals and lodging charged to the Academy will be submitted to the Academy business manager by the primary instructor. The Academy business manager will evaluate these costs to ensure that the terms of the contract were met and that contracted services and costs were as specified in the awarded contract. The invoice verification must be completed within five working days after completion of each training session. Invoice discrepancies must be resolved immediately, and the payment process must be initiated within five working days of the invoice receipt date. In the event of a discrepancy, resolution will first be the responsibility of the Academy Business Manager. If a resolution cannot be reached at this level, it will become the responsibility of the Academy Director. Voucher preparation and processing for these charges and for reimbursement to students attending approved training will be handled in a timely manner in accordance with Policy CD-024700.
