PROCEDURES: [4-APPFS-1C-03] [4-APPFS-1C-04] [4-APPFS-3D-16]

A. General Information:

1. Any currently enrolled college student with a declared major or minor in Criminology, Criminal Justice, Psychology, Sociology, Social Work, Police Science or Counseling and Guidance or related field, who has completed his or her freshman year with a total grade point average of 2.5 (on a 4.0 scale) or better may make an application to a District Supervisor for admission Intern and Volunteer Program Application for Admission form (CD-053301.1).
2. Anyone wishing to volunteer with PPD may make an application to a District Supervisor for admission, Intern and Volunteer Program Application for Admission form (CD-053301.1).
3. The Region Manager and/or District Supervisor will interview the applicant to determine the applicant's suitability for the program. The District Supervisor will then notify the applicant. If an intern the District Supervisor will notify the appropriate university/college personnel of his/her decision. Successful applicants shall:
  - a. Read and sign the NMCD Code of Ethics, Policy (CD-032200).
  - b. Complete the Acknowledgement and Understanding form (CD-053301.3), the Biographical Data form (CD-053301.2), the Pledge for Maintaining Confidentiality form (CD-053301.4), and the Waiver of Liability form (CD-053301.5).
  - c. Complete form (CD-053301.8) Background information Request having local, state, and federal criminal history investigation completed prior to beginning his or her internship.
3. Interns and volunteers will be provided access to department policies applicable to assigned duties and shall receive initial orientation training by the district supervisor using the volunteer/intern training checklist, . The intern or volunteer shall acknowledge receipt of training by signing the Volunteer/Intern Training Acknowledgement form (CD-053301.7). The intern or volunteer shall continue to receive on the job training similar to that given full-time Probation and Parole Officers (PPOs). Interns and volunteers shall receive training appropriate for the duties to which they are assigned. [4-APPFS-1C-06]

4. Interns and volunteers are to be recruited from all cultures and socio-economic segments of the community, provided that those selected have a positive and constructive approach to their assignment and offer no security problem to the Probation and Parole Division. [4-APPFS-1C-05]
5. The PPD will not reimburse interns or volunteers for expenses incurred as a result of tasks performed while in the program. Interns and volunteers shall not accrue leave or benefits, shall not be entitled to per diem or mileage, and shall not be authorized to operate a state-owned vehicle.
6. The PPD is not responsible for any physical injury the intern or volunteer receives as a direct result of his/her duties while in the program.
7. Interns and volunteers are subject to all codes, statutes, regulations, policies and procedures governing the PPD and its staff. However, the District Supervisor may terminate interns or volunteers from the program at any time and without advance notice. Interns and volunteers do not have the right to appeal. [4-APPFS-1C-07]
8. Interns and volunteers do not exercise the same authority as do full-time PPOs, but under the direct supervision and with the approval of their primary mentor may perform the routine tasks of a full-time Probation and Parole Officer, except independently meet with offenders, issue arrest orders, participate in field calls and/or offender searches, arrests, apprehend or detain offenders, collect drug test samples (urine or saliva) and/or collect any fees or money from any offender.
9. Interns and volunteers shall have restricted read-only access to the Offender Management System.
10. Any reports by the intern or volunteer will be reviewed and approved by the District Supervisor, prior to being submitted.
11. Information or knowledge gathered or obtained by interns or volunteers during the course of their program is confidential and may not be disclosed to any party not authorized by statute. Interns shall not identify any PPD offender by name either verbally or in writing in the course of preparing reports as a part of the intern's university or college course work.
12. Interns and volunteers will counsel offenders only in the presence and under the direction of the PPO or District Supervisor. The PPD is not responsible or liable for injury of damage resulting from advice of counsel by an intern.
13. Insurance coverage is statutorily provided by the Risk Management Division (RMD) of the General Services Department for all state agencies and local public bodies under NMAC 1.6.5.1. Additionally, no state agency may procure any kind of insurance coverage other than through the RMD (NMAC 1.6.5.3). All NMCD insurance coverage shall include at a minimum: [4-4041] [2-CO-1B-11] [1-CTA-1B-09] [4-APPFS-1C-08]
